- This meets focus on Teacher meetings serves as essential forums for professional development, collaboration, and the exchange of ideas within educational institutions. However, many educators may not possess a comprehensive understanding of intellectual property rights, particularly patents, and their implications for teaching and learning. As such, there is a need to integrate patent education into teacher meetings to equip educators with the knowledge and skills necessary to navigate intellectual property issues effectively.
- The PTA members were happy about the PTA Meeting. They gave their suggestions like,
 1. Counselling to be annoyed one in a month.
 2. Conduct workshop on how to handle the young generations.
 3. Arrange seminars on physical and mental health.
