A STUDY ON T.T.K PRESTIGE LIMITED. SIPCOT HOSUR.

INTRODUCTION

It was in the year 1928 that TTK Krishnamachari the first finance minister in India. Founded TTK prestige. One of the oldest business houses in the country today. Having initially pioneered and established a network of distribution, TTK prestige moved to manufacturing, post-independence. One of the main reasons why TTK attained its leadership status is because it epitomized quality at an affordable price. It innovated and explored new business categories, all the foundation of trust. Transparency and knowledge TTK has grown to a impressive size today, it's a 6000 crore group with products and facilities that enjoy international accreditations. TTK enjoys a presence in over 4,00,000 retail outlets across the country.

TTK PRESTIGE'S DIGITAL JOURNEY:

TTK Prestige is an Indian company which manufactures kitchen appliances and cookware. TTK Prestige is no longer a traditional pressure cooker producer; it has evolved from a maker of only outer-lid pressure cookers to a provider of comprehensive kitchen solutions. It has entered various new product categories, including nonstick cookware, kitchen electrical appliances, and gas stoves, in order to fulfil its mission of "A Prestige in Every Kitchen." TTK Prestige had an image problem. It was seen as a South Indian brand. To fix this image company decided to have the correct product mix for the untapped markets. Many smart digital marketing and advertising has helped TTK Prestige to change the brand perception. Now Company has moved its focus on fast-growing online channels.

FUNCTIONAL AREAS

1. Quality department

- Spearheading the category with high quality products, T.T.K prestige is known for its innovation and popular kitchen and home products, with a customer first approach to all products.
- With over 6 decades of experience, we constantly innovate to break the clutter of the category and change the lives of our users.
- We're INDIA'S leading brand built on the foundations of trust, transparency, knowledge and innovation.
- With the sole aim of revolutionizing the modern Indian kitchen, we continue to strive to create path breaking products driven by an insatiable urge to innovate.

2. Human resources department

- It goes without saying that the human resources (HR) department is one of the most pivotal sectors within your organization. The HR department can make or break a business.
- The HR department takes care of learning and development, operations, filling the talent gaps, onboarding, addressing employee grievances, etc. it becomes crucial for the HR department to maintain HR reports as to keep a tab on the pivotal happenings around them.⁹
- Moreover, interactive HR reports offer businesses the means to better understand their culture, spot emerging problems or issues and deploy proactive solutions to manage their resource in a more fluent, result- driven fashion.

3. Accounts department

- The accounting department refers to the division in a firm the looks after the preparation of financial statements, maintenance of general ledger, payment of bills, payroll, and more
- In other words, they are responsible for managing the overall economic front of the business.
- Maintaining a systematic record of all financial transaction and preparing financial reports to access the financial position of the business organization.

CONCLUSION:

The TTK prestige was very useful to learn and to know about the maintenance of the company. To meet the important members in their organization like managers and they explained me about their company. I had a great experience I felt it was the place to learn everything practically.
