Report:

Dr. K. Lavanya, Head of the Department of English, has successfully conducted a session on pronunciation practice for I and II M English. The session focused on enhancing students' pronunciation skills through various techniques and exercises. Dr. Lavanya emphasized the importance of clear and accurate pronunciation in effective communication. Throughout the session, students engaged in phonetic awareness activities to understand the sounds of the English language better. She provided feedback and guidance to help students refine their pronunciation skills further. Additionally, pronunciation drills and role-play activities were conducted to simulate real-life communication scenarios. Students actively participated in these exercises, gaining confidence in their pronunciation abilities. Her guidance and support were instrumental in overcoming these obstacles. Overall, the sessions on pronunciation practice conducted by Dr. K. Lavanya were well-received by students and contributed significantly to their language learning journey.
