ASSEMBLY

POLICY

- To revere and acknowledge the blessings of the Almighty.
- To foster a spirit of solidarity and patriotism among all the students.
- To help the students develop a sense of discipline.
- To boost one's confidence of public speaking.
- To honour and reward those who succeed.

PRACTICES

- The assembly committee systematically plans the Monday morning assembly, which includes a prayer song, a reading from the Holy Bible, the college prayer, thought for the day, interesting facts, News and Thirukurral.
- The committee also arranges an open assembly for the entire college every Monday, each month to make significant announcements, introduce the college union officers, and instil a sense of patriotism in the students.
- The secretary/principal then addresses the open assembly, sharing life lessons and moral principles that will challenge both the faculty and the Josephites.
- During the open assembly, winners are recognised for their accomplishments in a variety of fields (academic, cultural, and athletic), inspiring other students to follow in their footsteps.
- Highlights of significant national and international days are all included in the Morning Prayer on the other days.
- The committee assigns one department per week to lead the assembly that instills responsibility and boosts students' confidence.

OUTCOMES

- By calling upon God's blessings, the assembly cultivates and produces the minds of the faculty and students so that they can start the day on a happy note. The Holy Scriptures are read to foster religious harmony.
- Regardless of their age, culture, or religion, the faculty and students feel more unified after the assembly.
